

Be sun smart and sun safe!

Online, Saturday, July 4, 2009

Click here to subscribe to

SOUTH COUNTY INDEPENDENT

Serving Narragansett, South Kingstown, Charlestown, Kingston, Wakefield and Peace Dale

South County and North East Independent Sign up for exclusive updates!

Home

Arts & Living

Classifieds \ Real Estate

Sports

Neighbors

News: South Kingstown

News: Narragansett

News: South County

Opinion

Gallery

Special Sections

About Us

Subscribe

Place An Ad

Archives

Dan Nolan, a member of the Union Fire District's West Kingston station and the district's building maintenance supervisor, hangs a mourning wreath at Kingston Fire Station Tuesday after the death of Kingston firefighter Allan "Pickles" LePage. (Photo: Selena Millard)

Local News Headlines

UPDATE: Funeral arrangements for firefighter announced

SOUTH KINGSTOWN – The Kingston Fire District has announced the funeral services for Assistant Chief Allan "Pickles" LePage, who died Tuesday after being injured in an accident Monday at the fire station.

BREAKING NEWS: DEM closes Point Judith Pond to shellfishing

NARRAGANSETT – If your Fourth of July weekend plans included some shellfishing in Point Judith Pond, think again: The state Department of Environmental Management has closed the pond to shellfishing because of the recent heavy rainfall.

Cause of fireman's accident unknown

SOUTH KINGSTOWN —

MARTHA'S VINEYARD FAST FERRY

vineyardfastferry.com

SEE HOW THE WHEELS OF GOVERNMENT TURN ON THE...

CLICK HERE FOR PUBLIC INFORMATION YOU NEED TO KNOW!

Local Weather

68°F

more...

Top Advertisers

More Top Advertisers »

Online Poll

Do you think the state Department of Transportation does a good job maintaining Route 1?

- Yes
- No

View Results

Three days after longtime Kingston Fire Department firefighter Allan "Pickles" LePage, 67, was critically injured Monday at the Kingston station, questions remain regarding what happened to the man with more than 40 years of service.

Thousands expected at funeral

KINGSTON — Firefighters have not left the side of Allan "Pickles" LePage since his tragic accident on Monday.

Beach honors lifesaving legend

Every summer in South County, lifeguards risk their lives to dive into rough waves, swim through dangerous currents and pull stranded swimmers from the sea.

Forty years later, Prout's 'girls' gather

SOUTH KINGSTOWN — It was called Prout Memorial High School for Girls, and the name shouted proudly through the treetops on the building's front wing facing the beach route.

Fatality first in district history

KINGSTON — The death of Assistant Chief Allan "Pickles" LePage after a tragic accident at the Kingston Fire Station on Monday was the district's first death of a firefighter on duty in its 86-year history.

